

This Week At St. Andrew's

On the Horizon

The 2nd conversation with Knox, Trinity, Chinese, Knox-Sooke and St. Andrew's to further envision what collaborative ministry for our congregations might undertake will happen on Thursday evening, October 20.

- How might our congregations share insights and resources for our mutual challenges in addressing leadership challenges relating to filling key slots such as Treasurer and Envelope Secretary?
- Where can our diminished elder pool find help in caring for their ever-growing districts for whom our responsibility is to provide a direct link to the church?"
- How might our congregations currently without a minister support one another to maintain basic services to over-burdened congregations?

The conversation partners will leave on Thursday, October 20 with several key first-step goals that will move us from conversation to action with new energy and hope.

Remembrance Day Sunday will be commemorated on Sunday, November 6 during our 10:30 worship.

The First Sunday of Advent will be on Sunday, November 27. The Second Sunday of Advent on Sunday, December 4 will be our next celebration of communion. Christmas Eve and Christmas Day (Sunday, December 25) services are begin considered and planned.

Blessings to each of you.

Diabolus in Musica Concert

The Early Music Society presents Diabolus in Musica at St. Andrew's Church on October 29th at 7:30 pm.

In the twelfth century, in the famous words of George Duby, "a new world blossomed on the old Latin stump." This new world witnessed the composition by troubadours of the first secular songs on themes of courtly love. Musicians were joyfully reinventing beauty for a new age.

Diabolus in Musica go right to the heart of an exciting era of musical development when musicians were exploring the very essence of sound and the blending of sounds, rhythms and vocal timbres. – Gramophone
